In God we trust

Come on – Can't you see it? – There must be something wrong with you!! We'll give you a hint. Do you like peanut butter?? Now, do you see it?? Ah, now you got it!! That's not a board surrounding the slate – that's peanut butter. Yes, now you're catching on!! That's correct – That's not slate at all – That's dark chocolate!!

What???? You don't like Dark Chocolate????

No worries, this is a special blackboard that can be made with "real milk" chocolate – or even turned into a green-board with the flavor of "mint" And, the board itself doesn't always have to be peanut butter; it could be crispy molasses, or well, well, – what do you suggest?

It's true, Yankee Doodle Dandy Candy™ is a very special candy bar; it's all about having some FUN for yourself – as you help others.
