LIBRARIAN'S "GET SMART" SOAP™

Whether you do your reading at the Library of Congress or at the local library, all libraries require financial assistance. Therefore, some years ago, we decided to put forth an idea to raise funds for Libraries by offering quality soap(s).

In an effort to attract more attention to our LIBRARIAN'S "GET SMART" SOAP™ we conducted an exhaustive search for an ICON that not only exudes intelligence, but one that is immediately recognizable.

We were fortunate to - stumble upon such an ICON - currently pictured on the front of our GET SMART SOAP™ BOX. For sure, you will immediately recognize this ICON as same is found in EACH & EVERY Library - and periodically - even in your own home!!

Ironically, it is due to the local Library that our ICON became such an intellectual. Prior to introducing you to RECOGNIZABLE INTELLECTUAL, WE PLAY IT SMART, by first detailing the benefits of our LIBRARIAN'S "GET SMART" SOAP™:

Our Promise to You:

100% Vegetable Base & Organic
Lightly scented with a Leather Fragrance Oil
Formulated with Oatmeal & Shea Butter
Exfoliates as it Softens !!

As depicted on the following POSTER - soon to be offered for sale by The Librarian's of the World Club™ - through your local library - we make light of a serious endeavor to raise funds. DO BE ASSURED: Our LIBRARIAN'S GET SMART SOAP™ is a SERIOUS SOAP suited for boys & girls as well as for ladies & gentlemen - and - our soap continues to be a serious attempt to help ourselves as we help others. P.S. Not all of us are fortunate enough to have our own computer system; therefore:

BOOKS R URGENT = LIBRARIES & LIBRARIANS R NECESSITIES!!
